The amount of financial aid you receive is based on the information you provide above. If you do not list credits for a particular semester, then you will not be awarded aid for that semester. If you take fewer credits than you list here, your financial aid may be reduced. Also, if you take more credits than you list here, your aid will be increased only if you request it. Undergraduate students must be enrolled in at least 6 credits per term in order to be eligible for financial aid.
